RESPONSE TO NOTICE TO FILE MISSING PARTS

Asst. Commissioner of Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

In response to the Notice to File Missing Parts of Non-Provisional Application dated February 9, 2001, Applicants respectfully submit the following:

(1) Applicants filed the above-described application and affirmatively asserted small entity status by checking the appropriate box on the application cover sheet. The Patent Office has requested in the above-referenced Notice to File Missing Parts that Applicants provide a small entity statement in order to qualify for the reduced small entity fee, or alternatively pay the large entity fee. According to the amended rule relating to small entities, 37 C.F.R. §1.27, effective September 08, 2000, Applicants are not required to provide a small entity statement in order to properly claim small entity status. Applicants are enclosing checks for $525.00 for the small entity filing fee and $65.00 for missing parts fee. Applicants believe that no further action is required to satisfy the filing requirements in connection with the above-described application.

(2) Applicants are enclosing two originally executed Declarations and Powers of Attorney, one signed by each of the inventors; and

(3) Applicants are enclosing 15 sheets of formal drawings as requested on the Notice to File Missing Parts.

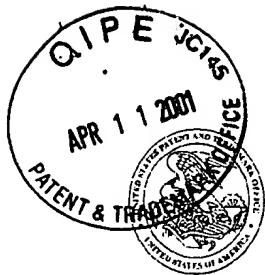

If there are any further fees due in connection with this matter, please charge our deposit account 03-0172.

Date April 9, 2001

Respectfully submitted,

Ronald D. Gutt
